Hogart the Hedgehog Turns Nink

It's Hogart's ninth birthday. As Snorning's eldest hedgehog, Hogart is no longer the adventurer he once was, but someone has to find out what comes after eight, and Hogart has the experience for the job.

Hogart the Hedgehog Turns Nink is a comical narrative in anapestic rhyming verse, written to be read aloud, enabling young and older kids to learn new words and phrases, and even a little bit of math! For ages 5-11.

Greta von Gerbil & Her Really Large Lexicon

Greta von Gerbil is a tiny little rodent with a really big vocabulary. When she walks around Rodentville using lots of big words, her fellow townsfolk feel threatened. A pair of Chipmunks decide to steal her thesaurus, but before they can destroy it, the local gangsters think of a cunning plan.

Greta von Gerbil & Her Really Large Lexicon is a graphic narrative poem in anapestic rhyming verse that encourages vocabulary building and revels in the pleasures of language. For ages 8 and up.
