Audition Form: Recital Evening Tuesday 10 November 2015, 6.30pm

Discovery College will be hosting its 5th Recital Evening on Tuesday 10 November 2015. This is an evening that features concert repertoire at a high performance level by students from both Primary and Secondary. Performances may range from soloists to small chamber ensembles, and generally features western art repertoire.

There is an audition process involved, and students are to prepare the piece they wish to present on the evening. Please be aware that not all students may be successful in their audition. The auditions will be held from Tuesday 27 October till Friday 30 October, and students are asked to complete all information on this form and return it to Mr Davis by Wednesday 14 October. Secondary students will be shared into a google doc with audition times and Primary students will be notified by email of their audition times.

Student Name	_____

Name of Piece	_____
Composer	_____
Instrument	_____
Accompanist Needed – yes/no	_____
Length of the piece – please time	_____

Please be aware that all soloists, except pianists, who need accompaniment for the Recital Evening must bring the accompaniment music to the audition. The accompanist is not needed for the audition.

The College will provide a piano accompanist for the evening performance and times will be made available for rehearsals. Parents are welcome to be the accompanist for their own children. Parents are asked not to organise their own accompanists and the College will not be remunerating accompanists organised by parents. The music department is aware that some pieces may be best suited accompanied by an instrument other than the piano. In such cases, please make contact with Mr Davis to discuss the accompaniment.

On the evening, all students will be required to perform in appropriate concert dress and will be expected to be at the College at 5.00pm to warm up and tune.

If you have any queries, please contact Mr Davis at the College. Email is best. Successful students will be notified by Monday 2 November.
