

4 January 2017

Audition Form : Annual Concert Wednesday 25 January 2017 at 6.30pm

Discovery College will be hosting its 9th Annual Concert. This is a performance evening to showcase music performers and performances from the Secondary School. Performances may range from soloists to small ensembles, and can include any musical style. Performance on traditional Chinese instruments is encouraged.

There is an audition process involved, and students are to prepare the piece they wish to present on the evening. Please be aware that not all students may be successful in their audition.

Interested students are required to complete this audition form and either submit in person or email it to Mr. Davis no later than Monday 9 January 2017. Students will then be emailed details on how to submit an audition video.

Student Name _____

Class _____

Name of Piece _____

Composer _____

Instrument _____

Accompanist Needed – yes/no/what _____

Length of the piece – please time _____

Please be aware that all music accompaniments must be live and no recorded backing tracks. If you require accompaniment please be prepared to provide accompaniment music to the music department. Please note the accompanist is not needed for the audition.

The College will provide a piano accompanist for the evening performance and times will be made available for rehearsals. Parents are welcome to be the accompanist for their own children. The College will not be remunerating accompanists organised by parents. The music department is aware that some pieces may be best suited accompanied by an instrument other than the piano. In such cases, please make contact with Mr. Davis to discuss the accompaniment.

If you have any queries, please contact Mr. Davis at matt.davis@dc.edu.hk
Successful students will be notified by Wednesday 18 January 2017.

Mr. Davis
Head of Music